

Defining Terms

Asynchronous	No live instruction - Independent work assigned by the teacher. Students determine their schedule based on their personal circumstances.
Synchronous	Online live instruction with lessons/classwork assigned by the teacher. The minimum number of live instructional minutes per class is 25 minutes for the month of August and we will transition to a minimum of 30 minutes per class starting Sept. 1st. Students follow the schedule, meeting virtually with teachers at designated times.
Advisory	A period of time when certificated staff meet “live” with a group of students for the purpose of connectedness as per Senate Bill 98 (SB-98).
Intervention and Supports	Teachers will meet with a targeted group of students based on formative assessment results. Counselors, Designated Staff, and Community Partners will provide social-emotional and/or behavioral supports.
Office Hours	Teachers and counselors will inform students/parents how they can schedule a meeting, either during their office hours as noted in their syllabus, or the hour following the end of the school day.
