

Salinas Union High School District

USE OF STUDENTS

The use of students during the time when class is in session in the promotion of District tax, bond, or other public elections is prohibited, and printed materials advocating a position regarding District elections shall not be distributed to students except by express approval of the Governing Board. However, class discussion of these and other matters of local interest is permitted in the interest of promoting education for responsible citizenship if such a discussion is within the scope of District-adopted curriculum

Nothing in this policy prohibits students, either individually or as members of groups, from expressing their opinions on such matters.
