CONTESTS FOR STUDENTS

Contests for student participation shall be identified according to the following criteria:

On a state and local basis, the contest or activity should be one:

- a. That supplements and does not interfere with the regular school program
- b. That is beneficial to youth in educational, civic, social or ethical development
- c. That makes it possible for individual students to produce contributions by their own efforts
- d. Whose subject is not commercial, sectarian or concerned with propaganda. It must emphasize high moral standards, good citizenship, and intellectual competence
- e. From which no contestant should be excluded because of race, color, creed, sex, national origin, or payment of entry fee
- f. Which does not place an undue burden on students, teachers, or the schools, nor require frequent or lengthy absence of participants from the school
- g. Sponsored by an organization engaged in a creditable or acceptable enterprise regardless of kind or amount of prizes offered
